

Transition Planning: An Advocate's Perspective

Workshop 4 from Self-Advocacy: “Don’t Forget About Me!” Series

Thursday, April 27, 2023

2:30 PM- 4:00 PM EST

Presenter: David Bateman

What are the common struggles families face during transition planning? How can families address these challenges? Families of transition-aged deafblind students will explore common challenges and potential solutions to these challenges when coordinating services and supports for their child.

To participate in this workshop, register here.

Self-Advocacy: “Don’t Forget About Me!”

The Helen Keller National Center (HKNC) in collaboration with the Delaware Program for Children with Deafblindness (DPCDB) and the New Jersey Center on Deafblindness (NJCDB) are hosting a Virtual Transition Institute for the 2022-2023 school year. A variety of online workshops for students and families will be offered, centering around self-advocacy for deafblind transition-aged youth (ages 14-21). For more information about upcoming workshops, click here.